Social and Personal.

Her Song. She maketh care to lighten.
She maketh hope to brighten,
She maketh faith to deepen.
She maketh life to sweeten,
With the magic, with the music of her

By the meledy and beauty of her

She maketh old ties dearer, She maketh new friends nearer, she maketh gray skies bluer, She maketh lovers truer, Through the tenderness and sweetness of her song, ?

By the power and the dower of her

-Marie S. Burnham.

Weddings of To-day.

Weddings of To-day.

Miss Mary Grattan Barksdale, the daughter of Mrs. Priscilla Read Barksdale, and the late Claiborne Barksdale, and Mr. John Mason Moody Gregory, of Chase City, Va., will be married at 6:30 P. M., to-day in Grace Episcopal Church, the Rev. Dr. Landon R. Mason, assisted by the Rev. Dr. William F. Evans, of Monumental Church, of-

F. Evans, of Monumental Charles, Miss Lizzie Seay Morris, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Morris, of Fluvanna county, and the adopted daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Seay, of this city, will wed Mr. William Sidney Lockett, a weil known young business man, in this community, to-day in the home of Mrs. Seay, No. 512 North Eleventh Street.

Latimer.—Mayo. Latimer-Mayo.

Latimer—Mayo.

Mrs. William Carrington Mayo has issued invitations for the wedding of her daughter. Anne Wise, to Mr. James Brandt Latimer, of Chicago, on the evoning of Tuesday, November 29th, at 6 o'clock, in St. Paul's Church.

A reception will be held immediately after the ceremony at No. 106 North Ninth Street, the home of the bride, and Mrs. and Mrs. Latimer. who will go Ninth Etreet, the home of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Latimer, who will go abroad December 1st, for their wedding trip, will be at home, after January 10th, in The Windemere, Chicago.

Ellis-Richardson.

The wedding of Miss Georgina Richardson to Mr. Lewis D. Ellis win take place Thursday evening, November 10th, at 9 o'clock, in the Fairfield Presbyterian Church, Henrico county.

Miss Richardson is the attractive and pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson. Miss Ellis is a prominent young man of Henrico county and is the owner of the Ellis Dalry on the Creighton road.

Milton Work Whist Club.

Milton Work Whist Club.

The Milton Work Whist Club met yesterday at the Woman's Club. Winners north and south were Mrs. Richard Meade and Mrs. C. C. Chapin. Those scoring east and west, Mrs. Luther Warren and Miss Lucy Quarles.

The first whist tournament will be played at the club the evening of November 2th. Thanksgiving Day.

Out-of-Town Society. Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Brooks are expected at Hot Springs, Va., this week to make a stay of several weeks. Mrs. Ogden Goodet, who has already arrived, will be at the Hot until early in De-will be at the Hot until early in December.

Fassifern farm, about eight miles from the Springs, is a popular place of resert for such fashionable people as the above and Miss May Van Alen, Mr. James J. Van Alen, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Leeds, Mr. and Mrs. B. Barton French, Mr. and Mrs. S. Barton French, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tailer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson, Mrs. William M. Van Anden, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Van Anden, Mr. and Mrs. Price Collier. These all go to Fasifern to eat fried chicken, spoon combread corn pudding, waffies, country cured ham, partridges, pheasants and other game in season. They relax in the at-home restful Virginia atmosphere, and grow sentimental as they listen to their hostess, Mrs. Butler singing old-fashioned ballads with a guitar accompaniment.

Miss Anne Gibson, the daughter of Mr Miss Anne Gibson, the dedgers of shad Mrs. Charles De Wolt Gibson, and the sister of Mr. Charles Dana Gibson, will be married this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to Dr. Alfred Francis Hopkins, of Washington, D. C.
The ceremony will take place in St.

o'clock to Dr. Alfred Francis tichkins, of Washington, D. U.
The ceremony will take place in St. George's Church, Flushing, Long Island, and will be followed by a reception in the home-of-che bride.
The Washington Post of yesterday says: Mrs. Nannle Langhorne-Shaw, one of the four handsome daughters of Mr. Chilton D. Langhorne, of Virginia, will spend the coming winter in England, where she will be the guest of friends at Melton Mowbray during the hunting season.
Mrs. Shaw is one of the most fearless and graceful horsewomen in the Old Dominion, and is extremely popular with the Anglo-American colony at Melton Mowbray.

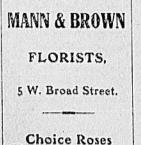

Personal Mention.

Mrs Thomas Cary Johnson, of Union Theological Seminary, who is at home from Hampton, Virginia, was delightfully entertained while there by her friend and hostess, Mrs. Robert I. Mason, who gave several luncheons and teas in compilmen to Mrs. Johnson.

to Mrs. Johnson.

Before her marriage Mrs. Mason was Miss Lucy Tabb, and was much admired when she visited Mrs. Edward Willis here. Both she and Mrs. Willis were then helles in Richmond society, Mrs. Willis being Miss Fauntleroy.

Miss Evie Tucker McGuirs, of Win-chester, Va., will be a bridesmaid next week at the wedding of Miss Helen Sav-age, of Rahway, New Jersey, to Mr. Edward Cone, of New York, The wed-ding will be celebrated in the country home of the bride, near Rahway, Miss McGuire is the niece of Mrs. Hunter and Violets

Goods shipped to all points

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Professor Charles Ellot Norton.

THE POOR VOTER ON ELECTION DAY.

By WHITT ER.

Whittier was a Republican after the Emancipation Proclamation. He always voted, and the sentiments expressed in the following poem were heartfelt. They remuind one of Burna's "A Man's a Man for A' That." Whittier was a great admirrer of Burns. He has related with what great joy he read for the first time when a farmer's lad the Scottish bard's poems. Other selections from Whittier, his portrait, autograph and blographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

THE proudest now is but my peer, The highest not more high: To-day, of all the weary year, A king of men am I. To-day, alike are great and small, The nameless and the known: My palace is the people's hall. The ballot-box my throne!

> Who serves to-day upon the list Beside the served shall stand; Alike the brown and wrinkled fist, The gloved and dainty hand! The rich is level with the poor, The weak is strong to-day; And sleekest broadcloth counts no more Than homespun frock of gray.

To-day let pomp and vain pretence My stubborn right abide: I set a plain man's common sense Against the pedant's pride. To-day shall simple manhood try The strength of gold and land; The wide world has not wealth to buy The power in my right hand!

> While there's a grief to seek redress, Or balance to adjust, Where weighs or living manhood less Than Mammon's vilest dust,-While there's a right to need my vote, A wrong to sweep away, Up! clouted knee and ragged coat! a man's a man to-day!

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1908. One is published each day, CUT THIS OUT AND KEEP IT. YOU WILL WANT TO READ THIS STORY LATER, IF NOT NOW.

By A. CONAN DOYLE.

Mrs. McIntosh, of Towson, Maryland, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Waller Morton, in Richmond.

Mrs. Otway Allen, who has been having a delightful time at the St. Louis Ex-position, is now the guest of Mrs. Rut-ledge, in Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Rutledge is remembered in Richmond as Miss

Rosalie Winston,
Mrs. Albert Ritchie, of Baltimore, Md. is spending some time with her brother, Mr. Henry L. Cabell.

Mrs. Small, of Hagerstown, Md., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Beirne Blair, at No. 4% West Franklin Street. Mrs. John Skelton Williams is at the Albemarle Hotel, New York city, and will probably spend the winter in the Adirondacks.

Mrs. Harry Frazier and family, who have been in West Virginia for some months, have returned to the city.

Mrs. Francis Pemberton has moved into

CHAPTER XXVII-Continued. In the opposite corner there sat a very burly and broad-shouldered man, clad in a black jorkin trimmed with sable, with a black velvet cap with curing white feather cocked upon the side of his head.

feather cocked upon the side of his head. A flask of red wine stood at his cibow, and he seemed to be very much at his case, for his feet were stuck up on a stool and between his thighs he held a dish full of nuts. These he cracked between his strong white teeth and chewed in a leisurely way, casting the shells into the blaze. As Alleyne gazed in at him he turned his face half round and cocked an eye at him over his shoulder. It seemed to the young Englishman that he hald never seen so hideous a face, for he had never seen so hideous a face, for the eyes were of the lightest green, the onese was broken and driven inwards, while the whole countenance was seared, and puckered with wounds. The voice, too, when he spoke, was as deep and as fierce as the growl of a beast of McGuire, of this city, and has often visited here.

Pemberton, before her imarriage, was Missited here.

Miss Edith Adams, a charming young society girl of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. T. D. Myers, Jr.

Miss Mary McMurran, of Hampton, Va., is in Richmond to attend the marriage of her cousin, Miss Edith Cosby, to Mr. John Wintersmith, of Louisville, Ky., on November 22d. Miss Lena Kellogg and Miss Virgie Agnew, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Newport News, Va., have Miss Effic Prosser is the guest of Miss Martha Baulch, at Old Point.

Mr. Cary Anderson Coffman, of Chicago, who visited friends here for several days, left for Chicago Monday evening. Mr. Coffman formerly lived in Richmond, and his return was a distinct source of pleas-ure to many friends in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Tallaferro expect to leave for a visit to the St. Louis Ex-position this week or next.

At the annual meeting of the Old Doher beautiful home, the old Lyons home-stead, on West Franklin Street, which she has renovated and improved. Mrs. can Revolution, held yesterday at No. 811

fresh roar from the stranger interrupted

"Thou villain inn-keeper," he shouted,

Bast Franklin Street, Miss Lucy Claire Atkinson was elected regent; Mrs. T. A. Wickham, vice-regent; Miss Alice Reddy, registrar; Mrs. H. A. Atkinson, treasurer; Miss Mary Newman, secretary.

by her marked success that she intends to continue in this line of work. Lewis Waller, her London manager, is one of the best posted and most prominent actormanagers in England. He will tour America with Miss Elitott's play next season, having already closed a contract with Charles Frohman to use his theatres with Charles Frohman to use his theatres in this country. The entire original cast will be brought over. He has already spent $55,000 in staging this producuon, and this in itself would seem to indicate that it has marked ability, since Mr. Waller is not only a fine actor, but a discriminating and shrewd manager. The action of the compared with him in New York, seems to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake at that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake to smake to smake to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake to smake to smake to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake to smake to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake to smake the cast that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake to smake the cast that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake the same that appeared with him in New York, seems to smake the target of the claracters and their afting down and tumping up from the times texted the appeared with him in New York, seems to smake the target of the claracters and the tumpic texted the tumpic and their afting down and tumping up from their afting down and time the stronger and the tumpic and

BARTON HEIGHTS.

Miss Lizzie Carter, of Lbuisa, who has seen visiting relatives in Brockland Park, has returned home.

Mr. A. W. Martinstein has left for Cincinnati on account of the illness of Miss Maud Palmore, of Powhatan, is siting Miss Mattie Smith. Mrs. C. L. Ball, of Brookland Park, is bickerings and scufflings during these blekerings and scuillings during those twenty years."

"Your fame is very well known to me, and I shall ask my lady to enter your name upon my tablets," said Sir Bertrand, "There are many who wish to advance themselves, and who bide their turn, for I refuse no man who comes on might be destrous of advancing."

The landlord was hesitating whether to carry this message or no, when the door of the inner room was funng open, and the stranger bounded out like a panther from its den, his half bristling and his deformed face convulsed with anger. "Still here?" he snarled, "Dogs of 175-half beformed face convulsed with anger. "Still here?" he snarled, "Dogs of 175-half beformed face convulsed with anger. "Still here?" he snarled, "Dogs of 175-half before his his strange green eyes softened into a siy and humorous twinkle.
"Mort Dieu!" cried he. "It should recovered and humorous twinkle.
"Mort Dieu!" cried he. "It should recovered and humorous twinkle.
"Mort Dieu!" cried he. "It should recovered and humorous twinkle.
"Mort Dieu!" cried he. "It should recovered and humorous twinkle.
"Mort Dieu!" cried he. "It should recovered and humorous twinkle.
"It is but three days since I looked upon it in the lists by Garonne. Ah! Sir Nigel, Sir Nigel! you owe me a return for this," and he touched his right arm, which was girt round just under the shoulder with a silten keep stranger at But the still provide his right arm, which was girt round just under the shoulder with a silten keep stranger at But the still be stranger and he touched his right arm, which was girt round just under the shoulder with a silten keep stranger and he touched his right arm, which was girt round just under the shoulder with a silten keep stranger at But the still be stranger and he touched his right arm, which was girt round just under the shoulder with a silten was an orthing compared with the actionisment and the delight which shone upon the face of the knight of Hampshire as he looked upon the strange face of the Frenchman. Twice he opened his much and twee there will be strange face of the Frenchman. Twice he opened his much and twee the stranger and face of the previous standard the stranger and face of the stranger and fac

Miss Anné Taliaferro, of Church Hill, will loave in a few days for Hampton, Va., where she will wist Miss Carrie Levell Cosby, who has been her guest here.

Mr. and Mrs. Berchardt Brauer, who will celebrate their golden weddling this afternoon from 3 to 6 clock, will welcome their riemes in their home, No. 516 North Sixth Street.

They will be assisted in receiving by their children, Mrs. C. Schaaf, Mrs. C. Gasser and the Misses Brauer.

HER MAJESTY'S SERVANT.

Miss Elliott's New Play Scores a Great Success.

Miss Rara Barnwell Elliott's new play, "Her Majesty's Servint." recently put on by Lewis Waller at the imperial Theatie in London, scored a great success, and has received such signs of popular ravor that it may be classed with the distinct heastrical successes. It is a melodrymn laid in the time of Charles II., and the interest is sustained by a series of effective situations which have given great delight to the London critics and audiences. The play is beautifully mounted, and has been put on with every stage accessory possible to heighton its artistic effect.

Miss Sara Barnwell Elliott is known and beloved in the South as whe daughfor the street of the late Bishop Elliott, of Georgia, and sister of Hilmpo Elliott, of Texas, Her home is at Sewance, and she is frequently in Nashville, where she has many warm friends and admirers. She achieved literary success some years ago through her work as the author of Jerry, "The Making of Jane." "An incident and Other Happenings" and shorter stories. This is her first attempt at playwriting, and she has been at work upon it for nearity two years. So much encouraged is she by her marked success that she intends to continue in this line of work. Lewis Waller, her London manager, is one of the back of the first attempt at playwriting, and she has been at work upon it for nearity two years. So much encouraged is she by her marked success that she intends to continue in this line of work. Lewis Waller, her London manager, is one of the secence of the secence of the se

The success of 'The Earl of Paw-tucket," which will be seen at the Acad-omy of Music at matinee to-day and to-night, with Mr. Lawrance D'Orsay and the cast that appeared with him in New York, seems to smash to smithereens the venerable tradition that a play demands action.

Vogel's Minstrels.

Vogel's Minstrels.

One of the many features to be presented by John W. Vogel's Big Clty Minstrels, which will appear at the Academy Saturday, matinee and night, is "Marseilles," the world's greatest equilibries, who performs daring and seemingly Impossible feats of equilibrium. A Berlin exchange says he is the only human being known who performs the remarkable feat of standing on one hand on a swinging wire.

"Marseilles" has been a vaudeville feature in Europe for the past five years.

The Child Slaves.

The Child Slaves,
Despite interest in the election returns, the Bialmey play. "The Child Slaves of New York," drew well at the Bijou yesterday at both performances.
The play is one that appeals to the sense of right and justice in the hearts of those who go to places of amusement, and when the end comes with the death of the yillain, there is joy in the house, and especially in the gallery. The detective end of the play is well rendered. The play will be here all the week, with a matines to-morrow and another Saturday.

Not a Real Boarder.

Not a Real Boarder.

The detectives are looking for a "nicely dressed young man," who is alleged to have taken a pair of shoes and an overcoat from No. 410 North Twenty-fourth Street early yesterday afternoon.

The young man went to the house and engaged a room and board, He said his name was A. J. Blair, and that he came from Alabama. He was shown a room and took possession. A little later he went out, and the lady of the house discovered that the coat and shoes had also disappeared. He failed to come back at a reasonable time, and now he is looked upon as a fugitive. upon as a fugitive.

Johnson Case Continued.

Tom Johnson, a negro, arrested by the detectives on the charge of stealing tot of clothing and other articles from Ed. Scott, was called in the Police Coupesterday, but went over to Saturday for more witnesses.

There are dealers who would sell So-rosis Shoes if we would lower the quality so that they could make more profit. The fact that we refuse to do this is the reason why some dealers don't sell Sorosis Shoes .- Adv.

The landlord was hesitating whether to

PEMBERTON CORRECT SERVICE & CO

...It It Undoubted...

That we offer the best chance of having the newest fancies on the most favorable terms. As we carry in stock only Dry Goods and Notions, very minute and exact care we use in their selection. What we offer is the result of painstaking examination of the markets of the world, united to our long experience of the local demand at home.

Thus we have just such products as are sanctioned by correct taste.

Separate Skirts are a special study, and we ask the examination of severe critics. The Skirts are models of correct shape and accepted cloths. Range of values from $5.00 to $20.00.

New Covert Cloth Coats just opened in exactly the right contour and lengths.

Velvet Suits in the late dictum of mode and of finish. As to the velvet used, it is the famous "Nonpareil" and "Boulevard," of smooth, soft finish, that gives a perfect appearance and service. The same goods we have at one dollar yard.

Meltons, of the approved weights and finish, are in active demand for entire costumes. We show the best values at $1.50. This includes black and the wanted shadings in blues and browns.

What we knew in advance has been proven by the trade, that our Taffeta at 49c was the best ever offered the discriminating public. New colorings just in stock.

Hosiery simply demands a passing notice. The Stockings we carry have all the elements of goodness; fastblack, regular made and of splendid service.

As low as 121c we can offer a Hose in all ways worthy.

As to Gloves, we rarely have a single complaint. Reason, we have an expert hand, and we buy only the best Gloves.

Even at $1.00 our Gloves have a distinctive fashion of their own.

One cent post-card puts you in direct connection with our firm. Samples cheerfully sent at once.

"Peerless" Paper Patterns are the best. Prices, 5c, 309 E. Broad Street.

DAILY FASHION HINTS.

CHILD'S FROCK.

No. 4562. Even the wee folks' wear shows more elaboration this season than ever before. True, it is mostly in trim-mings, for the foundations are about the mings, for the foundations are about the same, but we see evidences of the long shoulder. This is brought about by eleeve-caps, trimming, and often by large collars. In the model shown here, we have a full skirt gathered to a yoke. This, of course, could be used with or without the big collar. The sleeve is the bishop style, which is the only kind used on frocks of this description. A pretty idea is to have the collar made separately, of all-over lace or embroidery, and it can then be used on any of the little dresses, whether they be of small checkdresses, whether they be of small checked gingham or of white nainsook. Any of the materials usually employed in little girl's dresses may be used in the development of this mode.

Medium size requires three yards thirty-six inches wide. Sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 years.

No. 4562.

No. 4582.

On receipt of 10 cents this pattern will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE FOLKS PATTERN CO. Nos. 135-149. West Twenty-third Street, New York. When orderling, please do not fall to mention number and to indicate that this coupon is from The Times-Dispatch.

CLERK UNGER SUSPENDED

His Accounts in Office of 'Frisco Collector Alleged to be Short. (By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Nov. $.—Cress Unger, seizure clork in the office of the collector of the port, has been suspended.
The charge made against him, it is said, is that he received the deposits made on valuable parcels and kept the money. The extent of Unger's alleged appropriations of these funds is not yet known, but it is said the amount will exceed $1,500.

It is further reported that when the seizure olerk learned that his doings had been discovered he resigned, but that Coflector Stratton declined to accept the resignation and suspended Unger until the situation could be sifted to the bottom,
Regarding Unger's troubles. Collector
Stratton declined to be interviewed.

"This is departmental business," he said, "and I am not permitted to discuss it. I can say that Mr. Unger is suspended for cause."

In the Amherst Mountains,

In the Amherst Mountains.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PERA. Nov. 8.—A revival began at New Prospect Baptist Church at Pleasant View, near here, last Wednesday, and is being conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. George F. Cook, who is inboring in another field in another part of the county. The meeting is largely attended, baving large crowds particularly The new voling precinct at Pleasant View Church, was worked up by Mr. P. E. Lavender, was ready for voting to-day, Nearly one hundred votes were placed upon the books, only five being colored votes.

Two Small Cases, Ed. Jones, colored, contributed $2.50 in the Police Court for playing craps, and J. M. Christian paid $5 for getting drunk and abusing Alice Evans.

Cuttee Couldn't Appear.

Willie Ball, in the Police Court, was charged with cutting W. J. Johnson, but the latter was too fit to attend, and the case went over to Saturday.

"Laxo for sale by all Druggists."

A Most Reliable Place

TO PURCHASE GOOD JEWELRY

is the place where you know of whom you are buying. You have the assurance of a business reputation and guarantee that goes with every sale, Every article purchased at Kokler's proves its worth and the reliability of the store, and the customer always comes again. It is my idea of storekeep. ing to make people satisfied; they come again; they send others, too, when he spoke, was as deep and as fierce as the growl of a beast of prey.

J. F. KOHLER, Jeweler, Phone, 2643. 209 East Broad Street.

"Young man," said he, "I know not who you may be, and I am not much inclined to bestir myself, but if it were not that I am bent upon taking my ease, I swear, by the sword of Joshua! that I would lay my dog, whip across your shoulders for daring to fill the air with these discordant bellowings."

Taken aback at this ungentle speech, and scarce knowing how to answer it fitly in the presence of the lady. Alievne the door, while Sir Nigel and his companions dismounted. At the sound of these fresh voices, and of the tongts in which they spoke, the stranger crashed his dish of nuts down apon the floor, and began himself to cuil for the landlord until the whole house re-scheed with his roarings. With an ashen face the white-aproned host came running at his sail, his hands shaking and his very hair bristling with appreheasion. "For the sake of God, sirs," he whispered as he passed, "speak him fair and do not rouse him? For the love of the Virgin.

"Who is this, then?" asked Sir Nigel.

Alieyne was about to explain, when a

Miss Anné Taliaferro, of Church Hill, will loave in a few days for Hampton, Va., where she will visit Miss Carrie Levell Cosby, who has been her guest

Mrs. Emma Balley has left for Prov

Cincinnati on account of the internation is in the first factor.

Mr. H. Lee Ragland, of Washington is visiting his brother. Mr. W. L. Ragland.

Mrs. J. A. Butler, of Louisa, is visiting Mrs. George E. Carter.

Miss George E. Carter.

Mr. R. W. Unnaway, who has been visiting his daughter. Mrs. H. H. Holloway, has returned to his home in Norfolk.

L. Summers and daughter have Mrs. W. L. Summers and daughter have ft for Baltjanore, fo visit relatives. Mrs. F. M. Saunders has left for Kin-onto visit friends. Mr. Eckley Goyne, who has been visit-go on the Heights, has returned home. Mrs. P. F. Duggan has returned home fter a visit to her sons, Messrs. John and Joe Duggan, of Indian Head and Bal-more.

and Joe Duggan, of Indian Head and Baltimore.

Miss Mary Marshall, of Glen Allen, who has been visiting Miss Jessie Barrett, of North Road, has returned home.

Mr. James Cook, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers, of Meadow Bridge Roud, has left for his home in Rateigh.

Mrs. C. L. Ball, who has been visiting relatives in Newport News, has returned to her home.

Mr. A. L. Seay and children, of Shores, Fluvanna county, are the guests of his sieter-in-law, Mrs. Charles C. Rady, Mr. Thomas Clark, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rose, has left for his home in Charles City.

Mrs. C. B. Shafer has left for Albemarle to visit her sister.

Mr. Dennis Jackson, who has been visiting in Baltimore, has returned home.

Mrs. Charles Goodlee, of Lewiston, is the guest of Mrs. W. G. Cosby,

Miss McMurran, of Hampton, is the guest of Mrs. W. G. Cosby, Miss McMurran, of Hampton, is the guest of Mrs. Edythe M. Cosby.

Miss May Scott, of Petersburg, has returned home.

Miss Aima Saunders has left for Kinston to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Menbourne.

might be desirous of advancing.

"Thou villain inn-keeper," he shouted, "did I not ask you when I brought my lady here whether your inn was clean?" "You did, sire."
"Did I not very particularly ask you whether there were any vermin in it?" "You did, sire."
"And you answered me?"
"That there were not, sire."
"And yet ere I have been here an hour I find Englishmen crawling about within it. Where are we to be free from this pestitent race? Can a Frenchman upon French land not sit down in a French aiberge without having his ears pained by the clack of their hideous talk? Send them packing, inn-keeper, or it may be the worse for them and for you."
"I will, sire, I will!" cried the frightened host, and hustled from the room, while the soft, soothing voice of the woman was heard remonstrating with her furious companion. "Indeed, gentlemen, you had best go."